Snowed Out

2/22/25 - Each season brings its own challenges and obstacles, this year, however, Broncobots found an unlikely enemy - snow. Since kickoff, Broncobots have had 11 snow days, which has made vital early-season progress challenging. We'd like to thank all of our team's parents for their support during this crazy time as we look forward to a hopefully less snowy competition season.

This Week @ The Shop

This week Broncobots made progress digitally as snow rolled in before continuing mechanical and programming work later in the week once we were able to get back into the shop. More details coming soon as we put the finishing touches on the 2025 robot!
